J. H. MacDonald

Services were held in the Presbyterian church at Ellendale, N. D., on Friday afternoon for James Henry MacDonald, 67, retired Dickey county farmer, and father of Mrs. Dennis Baldry of this city. Mr. MacDonald died at his home in Ellendale last Tuesday after a long illness. The Rev. Depew officiated and burial was in the Ellendale cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Baldry and family attended the funeral services. Mr. Baldry returned to his home here Friday evening, while Mrs. Baldry and children remained with her mother until Sunday.

Mr. MacDonald was born in Inverness, Scotland, March 28, 1882, but had been an Ellendale resident since 1920. He married Florence Virginia Nelson November 20, 1912, at Holyoke, Minn.

Surviving are his widow; three sons: James of Oakes; Alex of Madeira, Calif.; Allen of Ellendale, and a daughter, Mrs. Dennis Baldry of Groton and seven grandchildren.
